

Assistant Professor of Chemistry

Kentucky Wesleyan College, a private, liberal arts college with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence, is seeking applications for a dynamic and talented Assistant Professor of Chemistry for the 2023-2024 academic year. This is a nine-month, tenure track position with a starting date of August 15, 2023. Candidates should have the ability to teach a variety of courses and a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching. The primary teaching responsibilities for this position include non-majors and introductory chemistry courses with possible opportunities to teach upper-level courses in their area of expertise. Experience teaching across broad range of topics is a plus. Candidates with specialties in Physical Chemistry or Biochemistry are preferred.

Major Responsibilities

- Teach a variety of courses to Chemistry, Biology, Exercise Science, and Zoology majors including but not limited to General Chemistry, Concepts of Chemistry, and other courses appropriate to the major at the upper level based on the applicants' expertise.
- A willingness to teach and support introductory level courses for non-majors.
- Encourage and oversee relevant faculty-student research.
- Advise students.
- Contribute your professional expertise to the college and larger external community.

Minimum Qualifications

- Ph.D. with a generalized specialty area. Various specialties and ABD's will be considered.
- A strong commitment to teaching, mentoring, and working with undergraduate students and a passion for providing an exceptional classroom experience for Wesleyan students.
- Enthusiastic and dynamic personality.
- Effective communication skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively.
- A desire to contribute professional expertise to the college and larger external community.
- Evidence of successful collegiate teaching experience.

Employee Benefits

This full-time position has access to a full range of employee benefits, including health, dental, vision, and life insurance; retirement plans; and tuition benefits. Due to the college's not-for-profit status, employees of Kentucky Wesleyan may be able to receive loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program of the US Department of Education.

Application Process

To apply, complete the online application at <https://kwc.edu/application-for-employment/>. As part of the online application, please include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, three current letters of recommendation with contact information, and an unofficial transcript of highest degree.

Review of application materials will begin November 15th and will continue until the position is filled. Questions regarding the search process can be directed to Dr. Darlene Ingram, Chemistry Program Coordinator, at darlene.ingram@kwc.edu.

An official transcript for the highest degree awarded will be required of the successful candidate, as will a background check. Incoming employees must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 unless a reasonable accommodation for medical or religious reasons is requested and approved. The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to attracting qualified candidates from underrepresented groups.
