

Adjunct Faculty for Art History

Kentucky Wesleyan College, a private, liberal arts college with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence, is actively seeking applications for part-time adjunct faculty to teach Art History. Openings are available for in-person and online positions.

Applicants must have teaching experience and a master's degree with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in Art. A master's degree in Art and teaching experience at the college level are preferred. For the online course, the platform is Brightspace.

Please send a cover letter, C.V., and the contact information for three professional references to Cindy Sublett in Human Resources at csublett@kwc.edu. Applicants will receive an email confirming receipt of materials. Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer. Review of application materials will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. An official transcript for the highest degree awarded will be required of the successful candidate, as will a background check. The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

About Kentucky Wesleyan College

Kentucky Wesleyan College is a private, four-year liberal arts institution located in the vibrant city of Owensboro. A United Methodist-related college founded in 1858, Wesleyan is known for excellence in academics and a superior residential experience. Kentucky Wesleyan earned a #8 ranking in 2017 from U.S. News & World Report as a Best Regional College in the South, along with a #3 ranking in the South in the category of "Great Schools, Great Prices," which measures academic quality compared to cost of attendance.

Kentucky Wesleyan students can choose from 29 majors and 13 pre-professional programs. Classes have a 12-to-1 student-faculty ratio, and 88 percent of the faculty have a Ph.D. or terminal degree. The College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate degrees.
