

Assistant/Associate Professor and Program Coordinator:
Criminal Justice and Criminology

Kentucky Wesleyan College's Criminal Justice, Criminology and Law program is seeking a visionary leader who is energetic, collegial, enjoys significant faculty/student interaction, and is committed to developing a highly interactive teaching/learning environment that engages students in scholarly work. The Criminal Justice, Criminology and Law program is a premier program at Wesleyan. Expectations include maintaining and enhancing the local and regional reputation of the program and college, working with the community to expand service learning opportunities for students, and developing the future direction of the program. This is a nine month, tenure track position with the potential to assume the position of Division Chair for Social Sciences. The start date is August 15, 2017.

Responsibilities and Duties:

Duties include program coordinator, teaching core and elective courses, scholarly activity and publication, student advisement, assessment, and active participation in college committees. In addition to teaching a wide range of core courses, the candidate will teach elective courses according to area of specialization. Some instruction may be online.

In addition, the candidate will be expected to display a demonstrated potential for excellence in teaching and scholarship, commitment to undergraduate education, and possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills sufficient to work effectively with an increasingly diverse array of students and colleagues, and to provide mentorship to junior faculty.

Minimum Qualifications:

- A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or closely related discipline.
- Leadership skills that will allow the candidate to work with various constituencies to continue the success of the program.
- Ability to foster creative methods of improving student outcomes.
- Supervisory/teaching experience in higher education.
- A strong commitment to teaching, mentoring, and working with undergraduate students.
- An active, independent research program that involves students.
- A desire to be of service to the college and to the external community.
- Effective communication skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively.

To Apply:

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, a detailed vitae listing qualifications and experience, transcripts, and names and contact information of references to Cindy Sublett in Human Resources at csublett@kwc.edu. If possible, please submit all materials electronically in a single pdf document. The college will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

Application review will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.
