

Assistant Director of Financial Aid

Kentucky Wesleyan College, a private, liberal arts college with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence, welcomes applications for a full-time Assistant Director of Financial Aid to join our community and provide guidance to students and their families throughout the financial aid process.

Major Responsibilities

- Advise prospective, new, and current students and their families throughout the financial aid process, including completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid.
- Analyze aid information and coordinate with campus partners to aid in student recruitment and retention.
- Assist with updating policies, packaging procedures, additional aid assistance available for students, student communications, and the department's policies and procedures manual.
- Enter and process information and data as necessary for internal and external purposes, including federal or state programs, Veteran Affairs, private loan certifications, originating and disbursing aid, TEACH program, identified State programs, and batching and transferring aid to the Business Office.
- Remain current with federal, state, and institutional regulations related to financial aid.
- Serve as representative of the College to on and off campus populations on financial aid topics.

Qualifications

- At least three years of previous experience in higher education and financial aid.
- Bachelor's degree.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills.
- High degree of accuracy and attention to detail.
- Demonstrated computer skills, especially Microsoft Office, and the ability to learn new software.
- Ability to work within tight deadlines in a busy environment.
- Self-starter requiring little supervision.
- Able to appropriately maintain and secure sensitive and confidential information in accordance with College and federal requirements.

Employee Benefits

This full-time position has access to a full range of employee benefits, including health, dental, vision, and life insurance; retirement plans; a generous benefit time program; and tuition benefits. Due to the college's not-for-profit status, employees of Kentucky Wesleyan may be able to receive loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program of the US Department of Education.

Application Process

To apply, complete the online application at <https://kwc.edu/application-for-employment/>. As part of the online application, please attach a file that contains a cover letter, current resume, and contact information for three professional references.

Review of application materials will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. An official transcript for the highest degree awarded will be required of the hired candidate, as will a background check. The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to attracting qualified candidates from underrepresented groups.

About Kentucky Wesleyan College

Kentucky Wesleyan College is a private, four-year liberal arts institution located in the vibrant city of Owensboro. A United Methodist-related college founded in 1858, Wesleyan is known for excellence in academics and a superior residential experience. Kentucky Wesleyan College has been consistently ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Best Regional Colleges in the South as well as one of the Top Performers in Social Mobility in the South. The Princeton Review has also recognized KWC as a "Best in the Southeast" college for several consecutive years.

Kentucky Wesleyan students can choose from 29 majors and 13 pre-professional curriculums. Classes have a 13-to-1 student-faculty ratio, and 88 percent of the faculty have a Ph.D. or terminal degree. The College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on College.

The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers compete in NCAA Division II and are charter members of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference comprising teams from Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee. Athletic teams include baseball, basketball, football, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, volleyball, and wrestling.

The College employs approximately 200 faculty and staff who work together on a single campus. Kentucky Wesleyan provides a challenging and supportive academic experience for students as well as a positive and stimulating work environment for employees.

A hallmark of the Kentucky Wesleyan experience includes “The Wesleyan Way,” beliefs which guide the entire college community:

- We do everything with honor.
- We always support each other.
- We will compete with integrity.
- We love each other in Christ.

Kentucky Wesleyan College values the unique contributions of all members of our campus community. As part of our mission to prepare future leaders intellectually, spiritually, and physically, we strive to provide an atmosphere that encourages and challenges all members of the Kentucky Wesleyan College campus community to exhibit an understanding and appreciation of cultural and human differences. We are committed to being a community that reflects the diversity of our larger society. We expect all members of our institution to actively create and maintain an inclusive learning and living environment that embraces diversity in all forms, including race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, socio-economic status, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, religion, and thought.
