

Athletic Training Internships

Kentucky Wesleyan College, a private, liberal arts college with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence, is seeking applications for three Athletic Training Internships. This is an unpaid, 10-month position (August through May) functioning under the supervision of the College's Athletic Training staff. The numbers of hours interning will vary based on sport assignment but will typically be 25 to 30 hours per week.

The Athletic Training Intern will be given the opportunity to practice skills related to preventing and treating injuries to student athletes in a learning environment. Duties may include:

- Identifies, manages, and rehabilitates athletic injuries.
- Helps to prevent athletic injuries.
- Educates and counsels student athletes on associated topics.
- Assists with medical coverage for College athletic events.
- Coordinates with other health professionals to facilitate and deliver care to student athletes.
- Performs administrative duties related to Athletic Training.

Internship applicants must have a bachelor's degree in athletic training, have National Athletic Trainer BOC certification, and be licensed or eligible for licensure in Kentucky. Applicants must also be able to travel and to work flexible hours, including nights, weekends, and holidays.

To apply, complete the online application at <https://kwc.edu/application-for-employment/>. Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer.

The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the internships are filled.

The selected interns will be provided with campus housing at no cost, a $1,000 per month stipend to assist with living expenses, a clothing allowance, and access to a CEU program, as well as acquiring the experience and guidance necessary for their professional careers.
