

Athletic Training Internship

Kentucky Wesleyan College, a private, liberal arts college with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence, is seeking applicants for an Athletic Training Internship. This is an unpaid, 10-month position, from August 2024 through May 2025, functioning under the supervision of the College's Athletic Training staff. The number of hours interning will vary based on sport assignment but will typically be 25 to 30 hours per week.

The Athletic Training Intern will be given the opportunity to practice skills related to preventing and treating injuries to student athletes in a learning environment. Duties may include:

- Identifying, managing, and rehabilitating athletic injuries.
- Helping to prevent athletic injuries.
- Educating and counseling student athletes on associated topics.
- Assisting with medical coverage for college athletic events.
- Coordinating with other health professionals to facilitate and deliver care to student athletes.
- Performing administrative duties related to Athletic Training.

Internship applicants must have a bachelor's degree in athletic training, have National Athletic Trainer BOC certification, and be licensed or eligible for licensure in Kentucky. Applicants must also be able to travel and to work flexible hours, including nights, weekends, and holidays. A background check will be required. The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

To apply, complete the online application at <https://kwc.edu/application-for-employment/>. Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to attracting qualified candidates from underrepresented groups. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the internships are filled.

The selected intern will be provided with campus housing at no cost, a $1,500 per month stipend to assist with living expenses, a clothing allowance, and access to a CEU program, as well as acquiring the experience and guidance necessary for their professional careers.

About Kentucky Wesleyan College

Kentucky Wesleyan College is a private, four-year liberal arts institution located in the vibrant city of Owensboro. A United Methodist-related college founded in 1858, Wesleyan is known for excellence in academics and a superior residential experience. Kentucky Wesleyan College is ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Best Regional Colleges in the South as well as one of the Top Performers in Social Mobility in the South. The Princeton Review has also recognized KWC as a “Best in the Southeast” college for several consecutive years.

Kentucky Wesleyan students can choose from 29 majors and 13 pre-professional curriculums. Classes have a 13-to-1 student-faculty ratio, and 88 percent of the faculty have a Ph.D. or terminal degree. The College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges.

The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers compete in NCAA Division II and are charter members of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference comprising teams from Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee. Athletic teams include baseball, basketball, bowling, football, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, volleyball, and wrestling.

The College employs approximately 200 faculty and staff who work together on a single campus. Kentucky Wesleyan provides a challenging and supportive academic experience for students as well as a positive and stimulating work environment for employees.

A hallmark of the Kentucky Wesleyan experience includes “The Wesleyan Way,” beliefs which guide the entire college community:

- We do everything with honor.
- We always support each other.
- We will compete with integrity.
- We love each other in Christ.

Kentucky Wesleyan College values the unique contributions of all members of our campus community. As part of our mission to prepare future leaders intellectually, spiritually, and physically, we strive to provide an atmosphere that encourages and challenges all members of the Kentucky Wesleyan College campus community to exhibit an understanding and appreciation of cultural and human differences. We are committed to being a community that reflects the diversity of our larger society. We expect all members of our institution to actively create and maintain an inclusive learning and living environment that embraces diversity in all forms, including race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, socio-economic status, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, religion, and thought.
