

Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology

Kentucky Wesleyan College is a leader in liberal arts and professional education with a long-standing reputation for quality and academic excellence. Currently serving approximately 750 students, Kentucky Wesleyan provides a challenging and supportive academic experience, a positive work environment, and a stimulating culture. Kentucky Wesleyan produces highly qualified graduates who become successful professionals in the career of their choice and valuable members of their communities.

Kentucky Wesleyan College is seeking a dynamic and engaging Visiting Assistant Professor of Psychology. A commitment to both teaching and scholarship is essential. The initial appointment is for one-year, starting in August 2019, with potential for extension. The successful candidate will teach an array of courses in multiple formats (e.g. Human Development, Adolescent Psychology, Personality Theories, Introduction to Psychology, etc.) and will develop and maintain a program of scholarly work in collaboration with undergraduates. The teaching load is four courses (12 credit hours) per semester. Additional responsibilities include advising students, professional service, and engaging in the life of the college.

Qualifications

- An ABD in Psychology (Ph.D. is preferred).
- A strong commitment to teaching, mentoring, and working with undergraduate students and a passion for providing an exceptional classroom experience for our students.
- Evidence of scholarly activity.
- Effective communication skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively.
- Some collegiate teaching experience.
- A desire to be of service to the college and to the external community.

Employee Benefits

This full-time position has access to a full range of employee benefits, including health, dental, vision, and life insurance; retirement plans; tuition plans; and a generous benefit time program.

Due to the college's not-for-profit status, employees of Kentucky Wesleyan may be able to receive loan forgiveness under the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program of the US Department of Education.

Application Process

Please submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, transcripts, and names and contact information for references to Cindy Sublett in Human Resources at csublett@kwc.edu. Applicants will receive an email confirming receipt of materials. Kentucky Wesleyan College is an equal opportunity employer.

Review of application materials will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Questions may be directed to Dr. Lynette Taylor, Chair Social Sciences Division (ltaylor@kwc.edu) or Dr. Paula Dehn, VPAA (pdehn@kwc.edu).

An official transcript for the highest degree awarded will be required of the successful candidate, as will a background check. The College will not sponsor applicants for work visas.

About Kentucky Wesleyan College

Kentucky Wesleyan College is a private, four-year liberal arts institution located in the vibrant city of Owensboro. A United Methodist-related college founded in 1858, Wesleyan is known for excellence in academics and a superior residential experience. Kentucky Wesleyan earned a #8 ranking in 2017 from U.S. News & World Report as a Best Regional College in the South, along with a #3 ranking in the South in the category of “Great Schools, Great Prices,” which measures academic quality compared to cost of attendance.

Kentucky Wesleyan students can choose from 29 majors and 13 pre-professional programs. Classes have a 12-to-1 student-faculty ratio, and 88 percent of the faculty have a Ph.D. or terminal degree. The College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate degrees.

A hallmark of the Kentucky Wesleyan experience includes “The Wesleyan Way,” beliefs which guide the entire college community:

- We do everything with honor.
- We always support each other.
- We will compete with integrity.
- We love each other in Christ.

The Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers compete in NCAA Division II and are members of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. Athletic teams include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and field, volleyball, and wrestling.

About Owensboro, KY
